Kate Chopin's "The Story of an Hour" originally published 1894. Her fancy was running riot along those days ahead of her. Spring days, and summer days, and all sorts of days that would be her own. She breathed a quick prayer that life might be long. It was only yesterday she had thought with a shudder that life might be long.

A story's omniscient narrator knows everything that happens, and why. This type of narrator is not a character in the story but an outside observer who can tell you what each character is thinking and feeling. As you read "The Interlopers," pay special attention to the information the narrator gives you about the two characters' pasts.
