A fee-based planner receives a fee for financial advisory and also receives commissions from fund houses and/insurers etc. for the products he/she recommends. The investment is done through the planner. Typically, clients would be "gently" dissuaded from investing on their own often with flimsy excuses. As with anything in life there are exceptions to this typical behaviour.

The Lists. Each tub's list is split into two sections: (1) A checklist for camping supplies that need to be checked/washed/refilled after each camping trip, and (2) A checklist for camping supplies that stay in that tub permanently unless they get broken, etc.. One important part of these tubs is the idea that the supplies stay there. For example, I have scissors that I use every day.
