There's Nothing to Do on Mars is a story about Davey Martin and his family moving to Mars. Davey is not excited about it because he is positive there will be absolutely nothing to do. The text in this book tells the readers about how boring Mars is, but when you look at the illustrations, it says otherwise.

There's Nothing to Do on Mars by Chris Gall - Goodreads

Chris Gall, the author and illustrator of Dear Fish and America the Beautiful turns his attention to the timely topic of life on Mars with his new book There's Nothing to Do on Mars. His picture-book perfect tone is great for young readers with an interest in space exploration and life on other planets, capitalizing on the every-kid phenomenon of being totally bored and giving it a nice twist.
